

To create a wireless companion speaker.

Plug the IC-S cable into the line output of the Main Powered Speaker and connect it to the belt-pack that is synced to the 2nd powered speaker. All audio signal heard through the Main Powered Speaker (wireless mics, CD player, wired mics, or ipod) will be transmitted from the line output of the main unit to the wireless receiver of the 2nd powered speaker.

